

But God commended his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have remained faithful.

Love is patient, love is kind, and is not jealous; love does not brag and is not arrogant, does not act unbecomingly; it does not seek its own [will], is not provoked, does not take into account a wrong suffered, does not rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth; bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

And my God will meet all your needs according to the riches of His glory in Christ Jesus.

Owe nothing to anyone, except to love one another.

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come.

Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters.

Therefore encourage one another and build each other up, just as in fact you are doing.

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.

I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

For the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can endure it.

In whose case the God of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving so that they might not see the light of the good news of the glory of the Messiah, who is the image of God.”

Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously.

For when I am powerless, it is then that I am strong.

I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus.

I am not saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be content whatever the circumstances. I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. I can do everything through him who gives me strength.

Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds.

There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus.

Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up.
