

I thought I would give you a change from general knowledge. A number of books and poems have memorable openings and this is the subject of this week's quiz. Below are the first lines of well-known literary works. Can you identify the author, the title or both? Good Luck.

QUIZ 20 questions.

1. "All children except one grow up".
2. Last night I dreamt I went to Manderley again.
3. Christmas won't be Christmas without any presents...
4. "To begin at the beginning. It is spring,"
5. Robert Langdon awoke slowly.
6. T'was on a Monday morning right early in the year
7. Shall I compare these to a summer's day
8. There was no possibility of taking a walk that day.
9. 'The mole had been working hard all morning'
10. 'The great fish moved silently through the night water'
11. Season of mists and mellow fruitfulness
12. When he was nearly thirteen my brother Jem got his arm badly broken....
13. Half a League, half a league
14. If I should die, think only this of me.
15. "It is a truth universally acknowledged, that a single man"
16. Everybody seems to remember what they were doing on November 22nd 1963 when Kennedy was shot.
17. These two very old people are the father and mother of Mr. Bucket.
18. Stately plump Buck Mulligan came from the stairhead
19. The curfew tolls the knell of parting day.
20. Is there for honest Poverty..