

QUIZ 58 ANSWERS

1. What does the adjective Vulpine refer to? Fox
2. In which principality can you walk an F1 racetrack? Monaco
3. What name is given to the fruit of a wild rose? Hip
4. What is South America's highest mountain range? Andes
5. Finish the name of this famous Doris Lessing work - "The Golden..."? Notebook
6. What name is given to the large, treeless plains south of the Amazon? The Pampas
7. Which General overthrew Salvador Allende in 1973? General Pinochet
8. What is a triangle with two equal lengths of sides? Isosceles
9. In the film 2001 A Space Odyssey, what is the name of the talking computer? Hal
10. The name of which famous Queen stems from the Greek word for 'born of a famous father'? Cleopatra
11. What are the names of the Oxford and Cambridge reserve boat crews? Isis and Goldie
12. What is a spelding? Haddock or small fish split open and dried in the sun
13. How is "Hedera Helix" better known? Ivy
14. What is the well known Latin term for 'bountiful mother'? Alma Mater
15. Which artist painted 'The Scream'? Edvard Munch
16. Who composed The Flight of the Bumblebee? Rimsky-Korsakov
17. In Romeo and Juliet, which noble house does Juliet belong to? Capulet
18. Sketches of Spain is an album by which famous jazz trumpeter? Miles Davis
19. How was Marion Morrison better known as? John Wayne
20. What are the discs between the bones of the spine made of? Cartilage