

QUIZ 82 ANSWERS

1. What does 'LCD' stand for? Liquid Crystal Display
2. Which geographer published a famous world map in 1569? Mercator
3. The island of Zealand is part of which country? Denmark
4. What name is given to viking stories and legends? Sagas
5. Which battle is depicted on the Bayeaux Tapestry? Hastings
6. What disaster took place in Ukraine in 1986? Chernobyl
7. Which artist famously painted his mother? Whistler
8. Which British swimmer at this year's olympics was the first to retain the title? Adam Peaty
9. Who preceded Neil Kinnock as leader of the Labour Party? Michael Foot
10. Who has a cat named Jess? Postman Pat
11. The name of Scotland's new Makar who was appointed in August. Kathleen Jamie
12. Which Margaret Atwood novel was made into a TV series? A Handmaid's Tale
13. What two colours are used for the poles in slalom skiing? Blue and Red
14. Whose wife was turned into a pillar of salt when she looked back? Lot
15. Of which country was Henry the Navigator a prince? Portugal
16. What is the Fifth Amendment in the US Constitution? The right to refuse to answer questions or make statements that could be used in criminal proceedings.
17. Steven Spielberg film about an animal call Joey. War Horse
18. What is measured in Pascals? Pressure
19. Who won this year's US Ladies Open Tennis Championship? Emma Raducanu
20. Composer of the musical Annie get your gun. Irving Berlin