

QUIZ 99 QUESTIONS - THE PENULTIMATE

Yes quizzers this is the second-last opportunity to make good use of your brains. Enjoy

1. The paddle-steamer Cotton Blossom features in which musical?
2. Who is the British equivalent of 'Uncle Sam'?
3. Which is the only one of the seven dwarfs without a beard?
4. What is the name of Beethoven's only opera?
5. From which language is the word 'coleslaw' derived?
6. Which American television series was based on the book Spencer's Mountain?
7. The symbol Kr represents which gas?
8. What is the only US state flag that still has a Union Jack on it?
9. Malaria is caused by which creature?
10. Guacomole uses which fruit?
11. Who created the character 'The Scarlet Pimpernel'?
12. W.A. Mozart airport serves which city?
13. How was William Bonney better known?
14. What is the name given to the public area in The House of Commons previously known as the Strangers' Gallery?
15. What is the main duty of the Master of the Rolls?
16. In Aesop's Fables, Androcles removes a thorn from the paw of which animal?
17. 'If music be the food of love' is the opening line to which Shakespeare play?
18. The name of the river that rises on Rannoch Moor.
19. Which country has the beaver as its national emblem?
20. In which country would you most likely be served food in a 'tagine'?